

COWICHAN VALLEY SOCCER ASSOCIATION

CONSTITUTION

PART 1: NAME

The name of the Society is the COWICHAN VALLEY SOCCER ASSOCIATION (herein referred to as the “CVSA” or “club”).

PART 2: PURPOSES:

The purpose of the CVSA is to encourage, develop and promote the game of soccer in the Cowichan Valley of British Columbia and elsewhere and shall include the following:

- a) encouraging, developing and promoting the highest standards of excellence in playing, organizing, training, coaching and refereeing the game of soccer;
- b) encouraging, developing and promoting the playing of the game of soccer by all persons who wish to play;
- c) organizing and operating soccer teams and tournament play in duly formed leagues within the CVSA, the Lower Island Soccer Association, the Vancouver Island Soccer League, the British Columbia Soccer Association and the Canadian Soccer Association for all children, youth and adults;
- d) promoting sportsmanship, fair play, and respect for players, coaches, managers, officials and supporters; and
- e) raising funds, acquiring or disposing of equipment or other property, building and improving facilities, entering into agreements with governments and other parties, and doing all things necessary to promote the game of soccer and carry out the purposes of the CVSA.